

NEWBORN PRICING GUIDE

Maternity $325

Maternity sessions are quite special to me. There is nothing like capturing the strong bond between mother and child from the womb. The session includes 20 digital high resolution images with the option to purchase/print additional images. Need a gown? Ask me about gown rentals.

Lifestyle Newborn $400

Enjoy this lifestyle session anytime with your family from babies arrival until 21 days old. This session can be done in the comfort of your own home or on location at a place of your choice. The session includes 30 digital high resolution images with the option to purchase/print additional images. You won't want to miss capturing all those tiny features and first moments bonding with baby.

Fresh 48 $375

Enjoy this lifestyle session within the first 48 hours of your little ones birth. This session can be done in the hospital or in the comfort of your own home. The session includes 30 digital high resolution images with the option to purchase/print additional images. You won't want to miss capturing all those tiny features and first moments bonding with baby.

Belly to Baby Journey $700

I'd love to document your pregnancy journey. The belly to baby package includes both a maternity session and either a fresh 48 or a lifestyle newborn session. I am happy to create customized packages as well.
